

February Half Term Rugby Camp

Elite Rugby Coaching Clinics are excited to announce the 2024 February Half Term Rugby Camp for students in Years 7 - 9 (U12-14 as of Sept 2023).

The course will be appropriate for all abilities. Ideal for total beginners that wish to develop their knowledge and understanding for the sport, right through to the more experienced players that wish to refine their skills. This programme will promote and develop an array of core/advanced skills required in today's modern game. This will ensure the best possible chance to further personal development as well as maximising each individuals skill set for the season ahead.

The camp will provide organised, educational, inclusive and structured activities, utilising a team of experienced RFU qualified coaches led by Brett McNamee. Coaches will pass on expert advice and professional tips, creating a fun and enjoyable environment. Individuals can expect to cover content specific to their age group ensuring the best possible chance to further personal development on and off the field.

The focus of the camp will be principles of play to improve decision making and game understanding through adaptive game play. We will always provide gradual progressions of all techniques and skills reinforcing the player centred approach. Furthermore, each participant will be provided detailed feedback reinforcing their strengths and highlighting areas of their game that may require particular focus.
